
BULGARIAN PROTESTERS VOW TO BLOCK INTERIM GOVT'S 'U-TURN'

-

12.08.2022

Balkan Insight (11 August 2022)

Svetoslav Todorov

New interim government of PM Gulub Donev and President Rumen Radev faces growing opposition from supporters of the previous government over its alleged pro-Russian agenda

Bulgarias capital has been rocked by protests against President Rumen Radev and the politics of his interim government, claiming it is distancing the country from the West and the EU. The next protest is scheduled for August 17 and similar events are planned every Wednesday.

Click For More

Kaynak/Source: