Chairman of the Cabinet of Ministers of Kyrgyzstan Akyzbek Japarov and the Prime Minister of Kazakhstan Alikhan Smailov met on the sidelines of the meeting of the Eurasian Intergovernmental Council. Press service of the Cabinet reported.

The parties discussed issues of bilateral cooperation, including within the framework of the integration association. Akyzbek Japarov noted that the official visit of the President of Kazakhstan Kassym-Jomart Tokayev to Kyrgyzstan, as well as the agreements reached during the tenth meeting of the Kyrgyz-Kazakh Intergovernmental Council, became clear evidence of positive dynamics in strengthening fraternal relations between the two countries.
