The resurrection efforts of the OSCE Minsk Group may lead to the alienation of the US from the Azerbaijan-Armenia normalization process, Azernews reports, citing Foreign Ministry Spokesperson Leyla Abdullayeva.

Abdullayeva made the remarks in response to US State Secretary Anthony Blinkens press statement on the appointment of Philip Reeker to the post of Senior Advisor for Caucasus Negotiations.

Attempts to `resuscitate' the de-facto non-functioning Minsk Group may result the USA to be estranged from the process of normalization of the Azerbaijani-Armenian relations, Abdullayeva stressed.
