DEATH THREAT TO XANTHI TURKISH DEPUTY ON LIVE BROADCAST

- 19.09.2022

Postsen (16 September 2022)

Hüseyin Zeybek, the Deputy of Siriza in Xanthi, received death threats from the Greek audience in a television program he attended. In the program attended by Deputy Zeybek, the audience connected to the live broadcast, If there is a war between Turkey and Greece, the first person I will kill is Zeybek Using his expressions, he reflected his arrogant attitudes on the screens. Turkish parliamentarian Zeybek filed a criminal complaint.

The Western Thrace Turkish Minority is affected at every opportunity by the escalating tension between Turkey and Greece. Siriza Deputy Hüseyin Zeybek was threatened in a television program in Xanthi, where the Turkish Minority in Western Thrace is densely populated. Deputy Zeybek, who participated in the program on Next TV channel, received death threats from the Greek audience, who participated in the live broadcast by telephone. Broadcast audience If there is a war between Turkey and Greece, the first person I will kill is Zeybek said.

Click for more

Kaynak/Source: