Prime Minister and Commander in Chief of the Armed Forces, Mustafa Al-Kadhimi, expressed his thanks today, Saturday, to all the security forces, stressing that Iraq is going through a political crisis that may be the most difficult after 2003.

"The Iraqis and their honorable guests commemorated the Arbaeen pilgrimage of Imam Hussein (peace be upon him) and his family and companions, as the Iraqis sent a message of patience, redemption and sacrifice in their most wonderful forms, and they gave the world lessons in hospitality and courage," Al-Kadhimi said in a statement received by the Iraqi News Agency (INA).
