Daily Sabah (28 September 2022)

Türkiye has given the necessary response to the unfair and unlawful attitudes and actions of Greece, on the field and at the table, in accordance with the principle of reciprocity and will continue to do so, Defense Minister Hulusi Akar said Wednesday.

Speaking at an event to mark Veterans Day in the capital Ankara, Akar stated that while Türkiye strives for peace and stability, Greece, which constitutes the most obvious example of bad neighborliness, continues its expansionist and aggressive policies with its provocative actions and rhetoric.

"Greece, the party that escalates the tension with this approach, recklessly accuses Türkiye. This is hypocrisy. In addition, this bad neighbor, who complains about Türkiye to others at every opportunity, has revealed its hostile attitude. Especially recently, some irresponsible Greek politicians have been poisoning Türkiye-Greece relations with new delusions every day.
