We shouldn't make ourselves even more dependent on autocratic states in areas like surveillance which are so critical, says Green partys co-leader.

Germany's co-governing Greens on Monday took a stand against a possible purchase of Chinese drones for the country's civil protection, local media reported.

"We think that's a bad idea," said Omid Nouripour, the Greens' co-chairman, following a meeting of his party in the capital Berlin.
