Millet News (27 November 2022)

In the statement made by the FEP Party, the definition of "Pomak" for Turkish students and the use of the expression "Minority Curriculum" for the Turkish curriculum in minority schools were considered as an unfortunate statement in the press statement made by the Prime Minister, following the acceptance of students from six Turkish Minority primary schools by Prime Minister Mitsotakis.

In the statement made by the FEP Party, it was stated that this stance, which is a clear indication that the policies of separating and dividing our minority continue, was strongly rejected.

The statement made by the FEP Party is as follows:
