Army Recognition (19 December 2022)

According to a picture released by the Ukrainian website "MIL.IN.UA" on December 17, 2022, Valery Markus NCO (Non-Commissioned Officer) from the 47th Assault Brigade released a picture showing in the background several M-55S Main Battle Tanks donated by Slovenia to Ukraine.

We can say that the M-55S Main Battle Tanks donated by Slovenia are now in service with the Ukrainian Armed Forces and deployed with the 47th Assault Brigade. To date, no official information has been published on the deployment of M-55S tanks in the Ukrainian army.

On September 19, 2022, the Army Recognition team reported that Slovenia approved the transfer of 28 M-55S tanks in exchange of German military vehicles, and on October 29, 2022, the "Kyiv Independent" website published that the Slovenian M-55S tanks were sent to Ukraine.
