Interfax (22 December 2022)

A total of 21 foreign companies have so far relocated to Kazakhstan, Deputy Foreign Minister Almas Aidarov said.

He said that since the start of the special military operation in Ukraine, 362 foreign companies that were leaving the Russian market had been invited to relocate their production facilities and offices to Kazakhstan.

"We've been negotiating with 362 companies since March, today 62 companies have agreed to consider Kazakhstan as an alternative location, and 21 companies have already relocate to Kazakhstan," Aidarov said at a press conference on Thursday.
