Azerbaijani foreign minister urges Armenia to take its obligations seriously, as no one will solve problems for the 2 countries

A lasting post-conflict settlement in the Caucasus territory of Karabakh demands work between Azerbaijan and Armenia, as no one else can solve their differences, Azerbaijan's foreign minister said in Moscow on Friday.

Speaking at a news conference following a meeting with his Russian counterpart Sergey Lavrov, Jeyhun Bayramov stressed that respect for the obligations one has made is "the best guarantor" for restoring peace in the region.
