France wanted Karabakh □ internationally recognised as a territory of Azerbaijan □ to remain a "frozen" conflict but Baku "foiled their plans," says President Ilham Aliyev.

Azerbaijan has demanded an apology from France over "slander" during the 2020 Karabakh war with Armenia.

"During the conflict, France openly accused us, slandered us. I demanded an apology from them. They slandered us without even any evidence," the country's President Ilham Aliyev said in an interview with local newspapers on Tuesday.
