The Greek Minister for Migration and Asylum, Notis Mitarakis, was received in Vienna on Thursday by the Austrian Chancellor, Karl Nehammer, after the day before he met with the Minister of the Interior, Gerhard Karner, Greek publication Naftemporiki reported, quoted by G4media.ro.

According to a press release published in this regard, Greece is taking the initiative to support the request of Bulgaria and Romania to join the Schengen area. This expansion will also have direct benefits for Greece, as the country will be unified by road, within the Schengen Area, with the rest of the member states of the European Union.
