
EU INTENDS TO APPROVE NEW MISSION IN ARMENIA

- 23.01.2023

Trend News Agency (23 January 2023)

The foreign ministers of the 27 EU countries intend to approve a new EU mission in Armenia at a meeting scheduled to be held during the day, which should contribute to the settlement of the situation in the region, a high-ranking representative of the EU told reporters in Brussels, Trend reports via TASS.

According to the source, the EU is concerned about the events taking place around the Lachin-Khankendi road and is making efforts to resolve the situation.

On October 17, 2022, the Council of Foreign Ministers of the EU at its meeting decided to deploy about 40 expert observers of the EU from the Armenian side of the international border with Azerbaijan in order to monitor, analyze and report on the situation in the South Caucasus region. On December 19, 2022, the mandate of the EU monitoring mission in Armenia was completed.
