
KAZAKHSTAN INCREASES OIL EXPORTS BYPASSING RUSSIA IN 2022

-

03.02.2023

AKIPRESS (3 February 2023)

Kazakhstan, the world's largest landlocked country, increased oil exports that bypassed Russia last year, but was still heavily reliant on supply channels via its neighbour, Reuters reported.

Kazakhstan has sought ways to decrease its dependence on Russian exporting routes as it has often faced difficulties in selling oil through Russia.

Kazakh oil is not subject to Western sanctions, unlike Russian crude, although the sanctions have created problems for some Kazakh products.

Click for more

Kaynak/Source: