Ministry of Foreign Affairs - MOFA confirmed on Wednesday, that the Iraqi delegation will visit Washington to discuss two basic economic files.

"The delegation will hold in Washington dialogues with the US side, which will focus on supporting Iraq's monetary policy as well as exchanging financial and banking support. It comes with the aim of enhancing the Iraqi government's vision of measures regarding the exchange rate of the dollar. The government took qualitative steps to perpetuate the identity of the new monetary policy, and dialogue with the United States looks out for the Iraqi national interest," the ministry's spokesman, Ahmed Al-Sahhaf, told the Iraqi News Agency - INA.
