Ilham Aliyev emphasizes bilateral cooperation developing successfully in various fields, says office of Azerbaijani leader

Azerbaijan's president on Tuesday discussed bilateral relations and peace talks with neighboring Armenia in a meeting with Russia's envoy for normalization of Baku-Yerevan ties.

"The Head of State (Ilham Aliyev) touched on the bilateral relations between Russia and Azerbaijan and emphasized with satisfaction that our cooperation is developing successfully in various fields," said a statement by the Azerbaijani presidency after Aliyev's meeting with Igor Khovayev.
