Former Kosovo Liberation Army, KLA member Pjeter Shala, known by the nom de guerre Commander Wolf, said in defence opening statements at the Kosovo Specialist Chambers on Wednesday that allegations that he committed war crimes and crimes against humanity during the Kosovo war are fabrications.

I have been living for 25 years * in Belgium, a democratic state, the duty of the prosecutor where I live is to research, discover, present the evidence and seek justice, in no way to fabricate it * Where I live, [that] is a criminal offence, it is punishable, Shala told the court.
