There is an offer from EU Council President Charles Michel to host Armenia-Azerbaijan talks in Brussels, Spokesperson for the US Department of State Ned Price said at a briefing with journalists.

We are ready and able to help the parties □ Armenia and Azerbaijan □ advance progress on difficult questions in any way that we can. We have done so bilaterally, we have done so trilaterally with the parties, including when Secretary Blinken sat down with his Armenian and Azerbaijani counterparts in Munich. We are and have been working with and through our partners. Were very supportive of the EU process, and I should note that there is an offer from President Michel of the EU to host the parties in Brussels. Its an opportunity, should they accept it, to sit down to continue the progress that weve seen in recent weeks, Price said.
