Greek Foreign Minister Nikos Dendias held separate meetings in Kosovo on Sunday with its President Vjosa Osmani and Prime Minister Albin Kurti ahead of the latest round of talks on normalization between Kosovo and Serbia.

Osmani's office said a normalization agreement between Kosovo and Serbia which is expected to be signed in North Macedonia on March 18 should be in accordance with the constitution of Kosovo.

According to the statement, Osmani expects the agreement to contribute to long-term peace and stability in the region and normalize relations between the two countries.
