Armenian Foreign Minister Ararat Mirzoyan revealed the peace treaty proposals made by Yerevan to Baku during the rounds of talks.

In an interview with the Egyptian AlQahera News Agency, FM Mirzoyan said that proposals have been exchanged since December 2022 in an attempt to advance the process and find fair solutions to the core issues.

Armenias suggestions include clarification of parameters for the delimitation of the state border, distancing of forces from the state border and the creation of a demilitarized zone along the borderline as a confidence-building measure and security mechanism, establishing a mechanism of guarantees, which will ensure the implementation of the obligations, and an international mechanism to address the issues of rights and security of the Armenians of Karabakh.
