There will be no additional final calls, says Christian Schmid.

Bosnia and Herzegovina's high representative on Friday urged politicians to form a government for the Federation of Bosnia and Herzegovina (FBiH), one of countrys two entities, along with the Republika Srpska.

At an extraordinary press conference in the capital Sarajevo, Christian Schmidt □ who is responsible for overseeing implementation of the 1995 pact which ended the Bosnian war □ urged politicians to end the impasse in the Bosniak-Croat region, adding that this is his final call for an agreement as political actors have obligations to the citizens.
