Millet News (25 April 2023)

More than 11% of voters remain undecided ahead of May 21 elections.

Greece's ruling party is leading ahead of legislative elections on May 21, a poll revealed late Monday.

Some 31.6% of the respondents said they would vote for the conservative Nea Dimokratia (ND) party, according to a poll by opinion research firm ALKO carried out from April 18-22 with the participation of 1,000 respondents, private broadcaster Alpha TV announced.
