President Rumen Radev did not announce when he would hand over the first exploratory mandate to form a government to GERB-SDS, but warned that the time window for the work of the 49th National Assembly could close quickly if a cabinet is not formed.

The head of state emphasized that everyone expects the parliament to produce laws, not scandals.

The decision of the president when to hand over the first exploratory mandate to form a government to GERB-SDS depends on the parties. Radev did not answer how much time he was willing to give them, but specified:
