AVRASYA İNCELEMELERİ MERKEZİ
CENTER FOR EURASIAN STUDIES

SECRETARY GENERAL OF OTS AND DIRECTOR GENERAL OF ILO DISCUSS POTENTIAL COOPERATION AREAS IN GENEVA

-

22.05.2023

Kabar (22 May 2023)

The Secretary General of the Organization of Turkic States, Ambassador Kubanychbek Omuraliev and the Director General of the International Labour Organization (ILO), Mr. Gilbert F. Houngbo convened in Geneva to explore avenues of collaboration and strengthen ties between their organizations.

The meeting, held on May 19, 2023, focused on identifying potential areas of cooperation and expressing mutual commitment to advancing their relationship in the coming period.

During the meeting, both parties engaged in constructive discussions, highlighting the shared values and objectives that underpin their respective organizations. Recognizing the importance of international cooperation, they emphasized the potential benefits that could arise from collaboration in various areas of common interest.

Click for more

Kaynak/Source: