
ARMENIA, GREECE AND CYPRUS SIGN TRILATERAL MILITARY COOPERATION PROGRAM

-

07.07.2023

Greek City Times (6 July 2023)

On July 5, the trilateral defence consultations between Armenia, Greece, and Cyprus (*) were held in the Republic of Cyprus. Leading the Armenian delegation was Levon Ayyvazyan, the head of the Department of Defense Policy and International Cooperation of the RA Ministry of Defense.

During the consultations, various security and cooperation issues of mutual interest to the three countries were discussed. The parties reiterated their readiness to collaborate and take joint steps in order to strengthen the defence capability and military security of all three nations.

As a result of the discussions, the annual program of trilateral military cooperation was signed, encompassing a range of events to be held in Armenia, Greece, and Cyprus.

Click for more

(*) AVİM uses "Cyprus" as a geographic name. AVİM considers the expression "Republic of Cyprus" to mean the Greek Cypriot Administration of Southern Cyprus.

Kaynak/Source: