AzerNews (20 July 2023)

Today, the Foreign Ministers of the EU countries will discuss military assistance and security guarantees to Ukraine, relations with Türkiye and China, as well as the normalization of relations between Azerbaijan and Armenia during the upcoming meeting in Brussels.

According to Azernews, this was stated by a high-ranking European source.

According to him, the meeting of the Foreign Ministry Council will begin with a working breakfast with the participation of the UN representative on human rights. Then the main meeting of the Foreign Ministry Council will begin, which will be devoted to three topics: the conflict in Ukraine, the foreign policy aspect of economic security, as well as relations with Türkiye," the source said.
