Leading civic organizations in Armenia issued a statement sounding the alarm about the European Unions continued support for Azerbaijan, the latest manifestation of which came through a statement by European Council President Charles Michel, who backed Bakus scheme to send humanitarian aid to [Khankendi] via Aghdam (Akna), bypassing Armenia.

Michel told reporters following a meeting he hosted between Prime Minister Nikol Pashinyan and President İlham Aliyev of Azerbaijan on Saturday that the Aghdam option should be considered while calling on Baku to open the Lachin Corridor.
