Georgias Foreign Minister Ilia Darchiashvili on Friday reviewed partnership and his Government's efforts to meet conditions for the European Unions candidacy status with the Portuguese Parliament Speaker Augusto Santos Silva and Zacarias da Costa, the Executive Secretary of the Community of Portuguese Speaking Countries.

Both meetings in Lisbon highlighted Georgias successful implementation of the 12-point conditions outlined by the EU last year for granting the country its membership candidate status, as well as positive outcomes of NATOs Vilnius Summit for Tbilisi earlier this month and security challenges sparked by the ongoing Russia-Ukraine conflict, the Georgian foreign office said.
