Kazakh-Afghan Business Forum taking place on Aug. 3-5 in Astana is intended to strengthen trade and economic relations, providing opportunities for businesses across numerous sectors, including diversification of trade routes, said Kazakh officials at a press briefing on July 31.

Kazakh Deputy Minister of Foreign Affairs Kanat Tumysh and Vice-Minister of Trade and Integration of Kazakhstan Kairat Torebayev attended the briefing, highlighting that Kazakhstan is aiming for robust years of bilateral trade with Afghanistan, surpassing the $988 million reached last year, as the two nations continue to deepen trade ties.
