AzerNews (14 September 2023)

Servicemen of the Armed Forces of Azerbaijan and Turkiye are conducting joint exercises in Turkiye, Zeki Aktyurk, media and public relations adviser of the Turkish Ministry of National Defence, said this at a weekly briefing, Azernews reports.

Joint exercises of underwater attack and underwater defense units of special purpose naval battalions of the Azerbaijani Navy and special purpose units of the Turkish Navy started on 8 September and will end on 15 September.

The exercises are aimed at improving the interaction between the two countries' armed forces. The Azerbaijani Defense Ministry stated that the drills are intended to "develop the military decision-making, initiative, and management skills of operational unit commanders."
