The Armenian ambassador to the Czech Republic, Serbia, and Bosnia-Herzegovina has expressed deep regret and disgust over Republika Srpska President Milorad Dodiks praise for the recent Azerbaijani offensive in Nagorno-Karabakh. In a letter to Azerbaijani President İlham Aliyev, Dodik expressed respect for Aliyev's recent military action, saying the settlement of the dispute over Nagorno-Karabakh was thanks to his wisdom and courage." Ambassador Ashot Hovakimian responded in an open letter saying the almost complete ethnic cleansing of the Armenian population of Nagorno-Karabakh *□ not a move that deserves the praise of the international community [or] the president of Republika Srpska."
