
THE BULGARIA GOVERNMENT WILL NOT BUDGE FURTHER DESPITE THE MINERS' PROTEST

-

11.10.2023

Novinite (10 October 2023)

"There is nowhere else to go," is how Prime Minister Nikolai Denkov answered a question from "Dnevnik" during a live broadcast on "Facebook" whether he is ready for additional concessions, given the ongoing protests of miners and energy workers.

Unions and government recently signed an agreement that says there will be no administrative shutdown of coal plants. Denkov explained that the state will continue to maintain energy security with base capacities that largely depend on coal plants.

Click for more

Kaynak/Source: