The extent to which Azerbaijan supports the global community in energy security is apparent, said President of the Senate of the Romanian Parliament Nicolae Ciucă as he met with Speaker of Azerbaijan's Milli Majlis Sahiba Gafarova, News.Az reports.

The meeting addressed the inter-parliamentary relationships between the two nations. Ciucă said that there is a great potential for further development of cooperation between Azerbaijan and Romania in many fields, including energy, transport, healthcare, and education.

Nikolae Ciucă expressed his view that the trip would advance parliamentary and other ties between the two countries. Mentioning the strong friendship that exists between Romania and Azerbaijan, he also emphasized the numerous domains in which the two nations cooperate.
