Tensions remain high between Azerbaijan and Armenia with Azerbaijan this week hosting joint military drills with Turkey near the border of Armenia.

AZERBAIJAN'S AMBASSADOR TO Ireland and the UK has criticised the European Parliament for accusing Azerbaijan of ethnic cleansing and said the tone of the conversation surrounding Nagorno-Karabakh needs to change.

Speaking to The Journal, Ambassador Elin Suleymanov, rejected the Parliaments accusation as an emotional decision and said Azerbaijan wants to work with the EU as an equal partner not somebody who would be mentored, lectured and have fingers pointed at.
