One of the main slogans of opposition demonstrations in Armenia in April 2022 was "Armenia without Turks" , Deputy Foreign Minister of Azerbaijan Elnur Mammadov said at a presentation of a report on hate crimes and incitement to hatred against Azerbaijanis, Trend reports.

He noted that evidence and facts related to these incidents were collected and presented to the International Court of Justice (ICJ) as supplementary complaints.

"On January 23, this year, the Azerbaijani side issued a statement and presented its primary lawsuit to the International Court, based on thousands of pages of evidence, concerning Armenia's nearly 30-year illegal military occupation of Azerbaijan's internationally recognized sovereign territories. This occupation included the deportation of ethnic Azerbaijanis from their historical territories, genocide, and other crimes against humanity," the official pointed out.
