Israel lashed out at the leaders of Spain and Belgium for their comments about the situation in the Gaza Strip, labelling the remarks false statements made in support of terrorism.

Israeli Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu strongly condemns the comments by Spanish Prime Ministers Pedro Sánchez and Belgian leader Alexander De Croo during a visit Friday to the Rafah border crossing between Egypt and Gaza, the prime ministers office said in a statement on X.

In Rafah, Sánchez and De Croo gave a joint press conference during which they both criticized Israels attacks on civilians in the Gaza Strip and stressed the need for more humanitarian aid.
