The Ministry of Foreign Affairs has outlined the main takeaways from FM Ararat Mirzoyans participation in the 30th OSCE Ministerial Council.

Concluding three days at the 30th OSCE Ministerial Council from November 30 to December 1 in Skopje, North Macedonia.

Minister Mirzoyan delivered remarks at the Council, highlighting the challenges faced by the OSCE and the countries in its area of responsibility, including in the South Caucasus: violations of international law in any part of the world must be unequivocally condemned and must not be tolerated, otherwise it causes a sense of impunity, becoming the new normal in other parts of the world.
