
SLOVAKIA AND GERMANY EXTEND BORDERS CHECKS

- 07.12.2023

Infomigrants (6 December 2023)

Benjamin Bathke

In a bid to curb irregular migration, Slovakia is extending its border controls with Hungary until January 22. The move comes two days after Germany said it would prolong border checks at its borders with Poland, Czech Republic and Switzerland.

The central European country of Slovakia will keep temporary border controls with Hungary in place until January 22, the government said on Wednesday (November 6), extending checks aimed at preventing a renewed spike in irregular migration for the second time.

Click For More

Kaynak/Source: