NEO-NAZIS PARADE IN CAPITAL OF ARMENIA

Israel National News (7 January 2024)

Armenian neo-Nazis marched through the nation's capital - only one sign of a worrying trend of antisemitism in their country.

A group of young Neo-Nazis marched on January 1st through the Armenian capital city of Yerevan with Nazi stylized flags. Social media videos show them leaving a wreath at the monument to Gargin Nzhdeh - a collaborator of the German Hitlerite regime, who recruited ethnic Armenians to serve in Nazi special services during the Second World War.

Untroubled by the police, the group shouted slogans against external and internal enemies, and with an obvious Nazi salute exclaimed "One Nation, One State, One Will," and "Forever Armenian." January 1st is the birthday of Nzhdeh, who was one of the members of the Armenischen Nationalen Gremiums, which operated within the Imperial Ministry of the Occupied Eastern Territories of Hitlerite Germany (Reichsministerium für besetzte Ostgebiete) under the supervision of the Gestapo.
