N1 (9 January 2024)

The head of the European Parliament election observer mission Klemen Groselj told N1 on Tuesday that the Serbia could be bypassed in the European Union expansion process.

He said that Serbia could face a situation similar to Turkey. I am worried that a European opportunistic policy could prevail which means that Serbia would be tolerated but that once the EU expansion process starts Serbia will not be part of it * I am afraid that Serbia will be trapped with the EU and US expecting a solution to the Kosovo issue, which does not mean recognition, on one side and on the other side the focus would be on Montenegro, Ukraine and Moldova, he said.
