In a strategic meeting on Monday, Bulgarian Defence Minister Todor Tagarev engaged in discussions with Ukraine's Ambassador to Sofia, Olesya Ilyashchuk, focusing on the implementation of National Assembly resolutions and Council of Ministers decisions regarding military aid to Ukraine.

The discussions aimed at assessing the progress of military aid provision highlighted the commitment of both nations to bolstering their defense capabilities. The meeting delved into various aspects of cooperation, encompassing security, defense, education, and science. The agenda included a comprehensive review of the Memorandum of Cooperation previously signed between the defense ministries of Bulgaria and Ukraine.

The Memorandum outlined avenues for collaboration, emphasizing the potential for joint efforts in defense industry initiatives. The commitment to fostering collaboration across these sectors reflects the shared interests of both countries in ensuring regional security and advancing defense capabilities.
