
PASHINYAN REIGNITES CONSTITUTIONAL REFORM DEBATE AMID DECLINING RATINGS

-

02.02.2024

The Jamestown Foundation (31 January 2024)

Onnik James Krikorian

Armenian Prime Minister Nikol Pashinyan has returned to proposals for extensive constitutional reforms, citing the need for a new constitution to enhance Armenias competitiveness amid changing geopolitical conditions.

Armenian officials have asserted that the primary focus of constitutional reforms is to restore the Armenian populations faith in the document and the government.

Opposition voices believe Pashinyan is succumbing to Bakus requests that Armenia change its constitution as part of any peace agreement.

Click for more.

Kaynak/Source: