
GREECE OWNED SHIP HIT BY MISSILE ATTACK OFF COAST OF YEMEN - UK'S AMBREY

- 12.02.2024

i24 News (12 February 2024)

Ambrey, renowned for offering security advice to merchant shipping, said the ship was reportedly hit and sustained damage on the starboard side.

A Marshall Islands-flagged, Greece-owned ship has reportedly come under missile attack near Yemen, British maritime security firm Ambrey said on Monday morning.

The incident unfolded in the southern Red Sea on Saturday, where the ship was targeted by missiles in two separate incidents while navigating through the Bab al-Mandab Strait.

Click for more.

Kaynak/Source: