Iraq and Jordan signed on Sunday the first modification to the electrical energy sales deal.

The agreement aims to supply Iraq with 132 kilovolt of electrical energy, covering around 40 megawatts of Iraqs energy demands.

The director general of Jordans National Electric Power Company (NEPCO), Amjad Rawashdeh, the director general of Iraqs General Company for Electric Power Transmission/Central Region, Riyadh Oreibi, and officials from both sides attended a ceremony to sign the deal.
