The two-day state visit of Kazakh President Kassym-Jomart Tokayev to Qatar on February 13-14 has concluded. Kazinform News Agency offers a detailed outlook into the key outcomes of the visit and prospects for cooperation.

Tokayevs first state visit to Qatar

2023 saw a milestone in the bilateral ties between Kazakhstan and Qatar, as the two countries marked 30 years since the establishment of diplomatic relations. On July 1, 1993, the diplomatic relations were established. In May 2007, the Embassy of Kazakhstan was established in Qatar and since March 2008, the Qatari Embassy in Kazakhstan has been functioning.
