The Iraqi Minister of Foreign Affairs, Fuad Hussein, and the US Department of the Treasurys Under Secretary for Terrorism and Financial Intelligence, Brian Nelson, discussed on Friday Irans financial dues in the Trade Bank of Iraq (TBI).

The meeting addressed bilateral, economic, and financial relations between the two countries as well as issues of common interest, according to a statement released by the Iraqi Foreign Ministry.

The two sides reviewed the reforms carried out by the Central Bank of Iraq (CBI), emphasizing how crucial it is to achieve development in order to develop the financial and banking sectors in Iraq.
