

---

WHY UKRAINE'S REFUGEES AREN'T GOING TO FRANCE

- 25.03.2024

---

Politico (25 March 2024)

Hanne Cokelaere and Clea Caulcutt

When it comes to taking in refugees from Ukraine, France is lagging far behind the rest of the European Union.

An estimated 4.3 million Ukrainian refugees have made the bloc their temporary home since Russias full-scale invasion.

With the help of the EUs temporary protection status, giving hundreds of thousands fleeing the war the right to work, live and study within its borders, Ukrainians moved to countries across Europe; from Poland and Finland to Spain and Ireland.

Click for more

---

Kaynak/Source: