The delegation of the Milli Majlis to the Parliamentary Assembly of the Council of Europe (PACE) had a meeting with visiting delegation of the Turkish Grand National Assembly to the NATO Parliamentary Assembly led by Mevlud Cavusoglu.

Samad Seyidov, Chairman of the Milli Majlis Committee for International Relations and Interparliamentary Ties and head of the Azerbaijani delegation to PACE, underscored the flourishing strategic partnership between Azerbaijan and Türkiye. He described the Azerbaijan-Türkiye relations as exemplary for other countries worldwide. Seyidov emphasized the unbreakable cooperation and friendship between the two nations, highlighting the significance of reciprocal visits and meetings that serve common goals.

The committee chairman emphasized the importance of the dynamically developing cooperation between Azerbaijan and Türkiye for the progress, peace, and stability of both countries and the entire region. Samad Seyidov also touched upon the signing of the Shusha Declaration, which saw fraternal relations between Azerbaijan and Türkiye getting stronger in every domain.
