Al Jazeera (4 April 2024)

Myanmars anti-coup forces have launched an unprecedented drone attack on military targets in Naypyidaw, the remote capital built in secret by a previous military regime.

The National Unity Government (NUG), which includes elected politicians removed from office in the February 2021 coup, said its Peoples Defence Force carried out a synchronised, coordinated attack on Thursday on key targets in the city, a stronghold of the armed forces.
